Methodology

Definition of “Passengers carried”

All passengers on a particular flight counted once only and not repeatedly on each individual stage of that flight. This excludes direct transit passengers.

Exclusion of double counting

The national transport (included in the total transport at country level) and the intra-EU transport aggregates (included in the total transport at EU level) have been calculated excluding double counting.

Notes on some Reporting Countries

Bulgaria: From January to June 2008, Varna airport declarations are not available. However, total transport includes national passengers handled at Varna as provided on the declaration of its Bulgarian partner airports.

Ireland: Galway airport declarations for 2007 and 2008 are not available. However, total transport includes national passengers handled at Galway as provided on the declarations of its Irish partner airports.

Italy: Pescara, Reggio Calabria and Tortoli airports declarations are not available for 2008. However, total transport includes national passengers handled at these airports as provided on the declarations of their Italian partner airports.

Croatia: In 2007 provided only annual airport declarations.

Turkey: No data available for 2008.

Iceland: Annual figures are not available for 2007. For 2008, data refer only to passengers on board reported by Keflavik airport.
